INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question.

Question 5 will assess your ability to construct a balanced, reasoned and well-substantiated extended response.

In addition, your answer to Question 5 will assess your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately and use a wide range of specialist terms as appropriate.

The sources used in this examination paper may have been amended, adapted or abridged from the stated published work in order to make the wording more accessible.

The sources may include words that are no longer in common use and are now regarded as derogatory terminology. Their inclusion reflects the time and place of the original version of these sources.

Answer all questions.

QUESTION 1

Study the sources below and then answer the question which follows.

Source A

[A photograph showing the latest Beatles merchandise being modelled in 1964]

Source B

On any evening, Carnaby Street pulses with young men in black tight pants that fit like ski-pants, their tulip-like girlfriends on their arms, peering into garishly lit windows at coloured suede jackets – very hot stuff with the mods right now. The impact of Carnaby Street is becoming worldwide. The Beatles wear Carnaby Street clothes. This is Swinging London.

[From an article entitled 'London, the Most Exciting City', in the World published in the newspaper Weekend Telegraph, 16 April 1965]

What can be learnt from Sources A and B about popular entertainment and fashion during the 1960s?

QUESTION 2

Study the source below and then answer the question which follows.

Source D

Today, women marry younger and have fewer children. Most women today are also employed before they marry. Many stop work while the children are small, but return to work when the youngest enters school. Household chores are eased by washing machines, vacuum cleaners, refrigerators and central heating.

[An extract from a government information pamphlet entitled
Women in Britain, published in 1975]

To what extent does this source accurately reflect the main changes to the lives of women between 1951 and 1979? [8]

[In your answer you should refer to the strengths and limitations of the source and use your own knowledge and understanding of the historical context.]

Read the interpretation below and then answer the question which follows.

[Martin Kettle, a journalist, writing in an article entitled 'Profumo: a scandal that keeps giving, even after 50 years', published in the left-leaning newspaper, The Guardian, in 2020]

How far do you agree with this interpretation of changing attitudes towards authority during this period? [16]

[In your answer you should refer to how and why interpretations of this issue differ. Use your own knowledge and understanding of the wider historical debate over this issue to reach a well-supported judgement.]

Marks for spelling, punctuation and the accurate use of grammar and specialist terms are allocated to this question. [3]
